

Broadband over powerline (BPL). The ARRL is concerned about the "pollution" over the HAM frequencies brought about by BPL. Please consider the implications BPL may have to our most valuable communication resource: the airwaves. In an emergency, the amateur frequencies are invaluable. It is my hope that the FCC will find ways to incorporate the advantages of BPL without the interference to the HAM frequencies inherent with this technology.

Thank you for your time,

Ron Cavalier, KI4AIB
ki4aib@yahoo.com