

I do not support Docket 03-104, Broadband over Power line (BPL). This technology displaces a tremendous amount of other FCC licensed bandwidth. BPL displaces current bandwidth users with no other equivalent bandwidth utility for long distance communication. In addition, there is current technology to allow Broadband communication over existing SHIELDED hardwire conductors without impacting radio spectrum (i.e. xDSL, Cable modem, etc).