

I strongly oppose the use of power line carrier technology for delivering internet services to homes and businesses. This technology has been shown to adversely affect (interference monitored on radio amateur HF bands at BPL sites by ARRL Lab Manager Ed Hare, W1RFI) radio communications in the 2-80 MHz range.