

The implementation of BPL will be a disaster for the Amateur Radio community. It will make the frequencies useless because of the radiated noise. This will effectively eliminate the emergency services provided by this community. Monitoring of trial communities establishes this condition.

There are enough broadband options today for the consumer. We do not need another which has so many negatives. Listen to the citizens and not commercial special interest groups.

Thank you.

Walt Wilson, N6XG