

I don't think BPL will be interference free, because already there is a lot of carriers on powerlines and other cables in the areas that make listening to AM broadcast band impossible. If the policeing of these troubles is not being done, how much more will the BPL add to already significant interference. Thanks WB5GVZ