

Based on evidence presented to me, it is obvious that Broadband over Power Lines (aka BPL or PLC) will be detrimental to my ability to utilize the HF portion of the Amateur Radio Spectrum. Please follow the lead of Japan by not allowing the power companies to pollute the HF airways. Power Companies have a poor track record of being uncooperative when it comes to dealing with interference.

Thanks

Steve Jax, N4SJJ