

The BPL plans have been unquestionably incompatible with HF and VHF stations in the same area. This has been tested and confirmed to be the case. Interference will be produced from one to the other and this has been tested and rejected in Europe and Japan. I urge the FCC to reject the BPL plans for proper communications throughout.

Kenneth Newman - N2CQ