

It would appear that adoption of this proposal will destroy amateur radio as we have known it! Putting broadband on unshielded power lines will make transmitters out of every power line. Please don't do it.