

I urge the FCC to not allow the use of Broadband over Power line (BPL). This is a flawed technology. It has many weaknesses and will interfere with other traditional forms of communication as well.