

I am a HAM operator KD7FVB and I understand you sre considering broadband hf over the power lines which will simple put kill our use of high frequency transmissions. There will be so much interference that it will render those frequencies useless to we HAMS. Isnt anyone researching this stuff before the suggestions become a bill? Thanks for listening