

I operate an amateur radio station near Goshen, Indiana. At the time I am experiencing sporadic power line interference, not related to BPL. It is difficult to get the power company (NIPSCO) to track down and fix power line interference as it is. If higher-powered BPL is allowed, the leakage from the lines will become intolerable. All radio listeners must be protected from this interference.