

Absolutely, under no circumstances, should the Commission allow BPL Technology proliferation in the USA.

The effects on amateur radio communication, already plainly demonstrated via numerous engineering studies, would be disastrous to ham radio operations in general and to emergency communications.

I am a voter, and intend to monitor the outcome of this decision carefully.

Daniel G. Brochu KY1F