

I think BPL needs to be HIGHLY regulated. The problem I see is that BPL technology creates a high amount of interference in the 2-80 MHz range. This will cause interference with amature radio operastors. It is already difficult to hold Utility companies to task for power line interference, BPL will exasperate the problem.