

I am writing this to oppose power companies from using BPL. Power lines were developed to transmit electricity and not RF and therefore have leakage problems. Power lines already wreak havoc on HF communications and this would make the situation worse.