

I believe that broadband transmission over powerlines would adversely affect radio communications in the spectrum covering AMATEUR RADIO frequencies. Besides being a hobby, AMATEUR RADIO serves as an important communications service during times of local and national emergencies. Please do not cripple this valuable national asset.