

I am against BPL Broadband over Power lines as it will cause interference with Amateur radio communications.

The FCC Should put the needs of the licensed services

(not just amateurs, the military would be greatly affected, as would most other current users of the HF and low VHF spectrum) ahead of the pocketbooks of power utilities.