

I am against the application of broadband over power lines due to the interference it causes to communications in the 2 to 80 megahertz frequency range.