

Consider the impact to amateur radio communications and all it entails, such as disaster communications, hurricane watch nets, maritime nets, international goodwill, et al. This noise pollution will impact many other things, e.g. the ability to listen to shortwave broadcasts, impeding air to ground and ship to shore hf communications, the impact on CB which can affect both highway safety and over the road freight delays. Not in the best interests of the General Public as well as Amateur Radio