

I have been an active amateur radio operator for forty six years and I especially enjoy contacts with weak, distant stations. Interference caused by BPL services will render our HF bands useless for weak signal communications. Please consider the amateur radio services and say "NO" to BPL services. Thanks in advance for your consideration -W3FV-