

I am writing to express my concern over Docket 03-104, the Broadband Power Line Transmission. If recent tests performed by the ARRL are any indication of the type of interference that can be experienced by anyone trying to receive signals in the HF portion of the spectrum, Amateur Radio as well as short wave listening will no longer be viable hobbies. I urge the Commission to proceed with great care and consider the interests of all concerned.