

As an active amateur radio operator I find it hard to believe that docket 03-104 could even be considered. What about all of the emergency communications that amateurs conducted and all of the experimenting such as the space program, etc. As I understand it, this BPL will effectively wipe out communications as we know it. I guess it is all about the money after all !!