

Current operating experience does not support the development of BPL at this time, this need is already being filled by both the Cable TV, Satillite TV and the Telephone Companies, the is no public need for internet over power line at this time. This could also interfere with existing approved devices as in X-10 and internal home/office intranet devices.