

I support the Comment submitted by The American Radio Relay League concerning Docket ET 03-104.

Further research and innovations in BPL are needed to avoid the great risk of irreparable interference this technology poses to the HF Amateur Radio service and to shortwave listening.

Approval of of ET 03-104 would violate the existing FCC rules on non-interference and therefore would be contrary to the best interest of the public.

Chris Keller
KC8BHM
Wellston, OH