

I wish to go on record as opposing the BPL initiative. This technology is a threat to amateur radio as well as to homeland security. There are other approaches to broadband communication that do not pose such severe interference risks to HF radio. The American Radio Relay League has documented how severe this interference will be. Please ensure that this proposed technology never enters service.