

Surely you realize that relaxing the present power line radiation limits would destroy Amateur Radio as we know it. I thought the FCC has enough complaints from irate citizens about interference. With BPL they would increase beyond your imagination.