

Please reconsider your position on BPL deployment using the Amateur allocations. By allowing BPL as suggested, the potential interference to Amateurs operating in those bands would be severe.

Now with as an affiliate of Citizen Corp, an initiative within the Department of Homeland Security, it is even more important to control the emissions of technologies that would cause harmful interference.