

Well now after the fiasco in the northeast with power outages I would think BPL should die a quick deserving death. You guys will more than likely destroy ham radio one of our nations greatest communication resources and defenses in national emergencies. This is a terrible idea and concept and should be discounted and discontinued immediately!!!!!!!