

I'm an amateur radio operator and I oppose BPL. It causes significant interference with our spectrum of frequencies that have been allocated to the amateur radio service. Allow the use of BPL would significantly hinder the effectiveness of the amateur community to conduct emergency communications in times of disaster and with this date and age of terrorism we need the amateur community now more than ever.