

I am opposed to BPL (Broadband over Power Lines). It appears that the power lines will radiate too much across the spectrum, including the amateur bands. It appears that there will be no way to stop BPL once it is started and there are issues with other services including amateur radio. The people who are for BPL seem to know little or nothing about the radio spectrum and the effects of broadband radiation of RF energy.