

In response to the proceedings on file 03-104, How can we possibly give the opportunity of complete communications failures in the wireless field of communications to any industry that can't figure out what happened on August 14,15,16,17,2003??? The electrical company's only know profit and loss statements!!! They really don't care about any one or any other operations of other enties.Thank You.