

The application of the BPL supporters specifies the heart of the amateur radio frequencies, frequencies that have been proven to be subject to great harm by BPL. Amateur radio is one of the best first-to-respond to emergencies. I do not believe we can do without this most valuable service. These are the same frequencies also used by government as well as other valuable services. I suggest that the leadership of the FCC carefully study the BPL ramifications.