

Please consider the amateur radio community and reject Broadband over Power Lines which has proven to interfere with amateur HF communications. The public has a multitude of data connection options already and amateurs affected by the Broadband over Power Lines interference will NOT have any alternates for HF activity.