

As an amateur radio operator with a major interest in public service, including collecting and reporting weather data to the National Weather service, I am opposed to the Broadband over power lines which is likely to cause major interferences to radio communication.