

I believe that allowing BPL to be established would end Amateur Radio in the HF and lower VHF spectrum from the interference generated by BPL. Amateur Radio has made a great contribution to public service over the years and it would be ashame place motives of profit over the public service.

From the information I have received I can't see how BPL would not cause severe damage to the amateur bands. Please do not allow this to take place. Thank you for your consideration.