

I have heard the test of BPL over power line. The noise makes the frequencies used by most emergency communications groups (Amateur, CAP, MARS, SHARES/FEMA) unusable.

To allow this proposal would mean endangering the lives and safety of the the citizens because help during communications emergencies would not be available.