

BPL, as evidenced by the ARRL test, will effectively render the so-called "HF" bands of Amateur Radio useless. As it stands right now, technology does not apparently exist to make the two compatible. I strongly urge the FCC to NOT ALLOW "BPL" to interfere with the Amateur Radio (HAM) frequencies now or in the future. Part 15 must stand true. Interference is interference. P.Michael Nicholson, K6CUG