

I am opposed to delivery of broadband data service over power lines. ARRL research shows this technology negatively affects amateur radio (used in disaster situations operations).

Further, numerous commercial and public service radios are in the 2 - 80 MHz band that BPL will operate over.