

I am opposed to Broadband over powerline (BPL). I fear the potential interference to public safety and other government communications could far outweigh any benefits that it may bring to internet accessibility.