

BPL is bad. It will interfere with military and security forces ability to communicate. It will destroy amateur radio which is necessary in the event of emergencies like a power black out or terrorist strike.

There are alternative technologies which will perform the task equally well or better. Fiber optics is one example of this.

Please do not jeopardize our nation's ability to prevent and respond to national emergencies. Please reject BPL.