

The Borough of Watchung operates a Low Power AM radio Station under the callsign WNPT550. This is used for notify residents of what to do during an emergency. The signals are very weak because of the power level allowed by the FCC. We are concerned Broadband over Power Line will create interference making the station unusable.