

I strongly urge the FCC to reject the proposals to implement and expand BPL. The affects of this "technology" will be felt not only by ham radio operators, but will also severly impact our national defense in times of emergency.