

As a licensed operator holding the call K8DAV, I just have to voice my dislike of the FCC even considering BPL. The level of interference is great right now. If the FCC violates it's own interference rules they are showing a double standard. One for the minimal influential groups and one for big business.
Dave Kushman