

While I'm in favor of new technology and improved ways of providing broadband services, the Broadband Over Power Lines (BPL) service is a huge threat to not only the amateur radio frequencies, but also to all those assisted by amateurs in time of need.

The recent blackouts in the Northeast should serve as a reminder to all Americans, that amateur radio is not only a hobby but also a service to our fellow citizens. Please protect our citizens by protecting our frequencies!