

The Broadband over Power Lines proposal would all but eliminate the activity of Amateur Radio Operators on the high frequency bands in the proximity of the power line source. After listening to the interference caused by the broadband activity I find it hard to believe that the proposal should be passed. I respectfully ask that the FCC take another look at the Broadband over Power Line proposal and not grant the activity which will degrade Amateur Radio activity in the HF bands.