

I would like a no vote on the proposed proceeding. According to the detailed technical report by the American Radio Relay League (ARRL), the proposed BPL would produce substantial amounts of HF interference. This interference has the potential to interfere with HF emergency communications and directly affect life safety for those in hurricane-affected areas trying to seek Hurricane Advisories or trying to communicate their conditions or transmitting a distress call.

JTR