

I have been using the Internet for 20 years and ham radio for less than a year.
Of
the two, ham radio is much more important to the future of this country as a "breeding ground" of technically competent, responsible and often selfless people.
Please keep this in mind while evaluating the potentially harmful impact of BPL on amateur radio communications. Thank you - KC9DUX.