

Dear Sirs,

Regarding this docket. Why ? Do you not realize that although providing internet service to a few "Remote" locations the interference generated on the HF spectrum will not only wipe out Amateur communications but AM broadcast as well? Explain that one when severe weather hits one of these areas and lives are lost because people could not hear the weather warnings on the local AM station because some one needed to check they're EMail!