

I am against BPL based on insufficient BPL engineering data showing the interference potential to our national resource (the radio wave spectrum) can be mitigated through a power grid that is omnipresent in our society. For the good of the nation, the real interference to radio systems cannot be justified against the commercial interest of BPL. Other proven technologies are better suited for data transmission over traditional circuits including point to multipoint data radio circuits.