

I do not support BPL as a viable internet link. BPL is an outdated method of delivering internet access and will vastly disturb communications from VLF through an including VHF. BPL will interrupt reception of Braodcast stations, Amateur Radio, military, flight, and government communications. HomeLand Security communications during an emergency will also suffer due to broadband interference by BPL.