

I am concerned that HF and VHF signals sent over power lines will increase the noise on Amateur Radio bands and that this will undermine the ability of ham radio operators to serve the public interest in the event of national and local emergencies. I request that BPL not proceed until adequate site studies, with ARRL participation, have been conducted and there are convincing demonstrations that BPL will not cause harmful interference to Amateur Radio communications and operations.